Dear John,

Once again, I would like to thank you for our incredible web site.

As you know, I am basically uneducated about how to organize a web site and what it takes to make it successful. My weakness is thankfully your strength. The result has been a professional and eye catching site that we are proud of and our visitors are impressed with. It is exactly what I told you I wanted to achieve, and you delivered.

I think the thing that sets you apart from almost everyone else in this business is your responsiveness. We were up and running (at least with design pages) within a day of your first visit. I was impressed with the way you took our information, interpreted and put it on the web just to give us a preview. You are awesome!

The fact is every person I have encountered in your group has been equally as responsive, not to mention, incredibly patient. One of the most comforting things about your company is that you are available for support on an ongoing basis virtually 24 hours a day.

I feel so pleased with the quality and professionalism you have shown, that I have already referred two of my clients to you.

Continued good luck to you, and thanks again for a job well done.

Warm regards,

THE HUNTER GROUP ASSOCIATES, INC.
